

Paralympic Games Winter Overview

Year	Location	Disabilities included	No. of Countries	No. of Athletes	Highlights
2018	PyeongChang (KOR)	Spinal injury, Amputee, Visual Impairment, Cerebral Palsy, Les Autres
2014	Sochi (RUS)	Spinal injury, Amputee, Visual Impairment, Cerebral Palsy, Les Autres
2010	Vancouver (CAN)	Spinal injury, Amputee, Visual Impairment, Cerebral Palsy, Les Autres	44	502	Ticket sales exceeded 230,000, the most ever.
2006	Torino (ITA)	Spinal injury, Amputee, Visual Impairment, Cerebral Palsy, Les Autres	39	477	Wheelchair Curling added as a new sport.
2002	Salt Lake City (USA)	Spinal injury, Amputee, Visual Impairment, Cerebral Palsy, Les Autres	36	416	Number of tickets on sale had to be augmented due to high demand
1998	Nagano (JAP)	Spinal injury, Amputee, Visual Impairment, Cerebral Palsy, Les Autres	32	571	Demonstrated rising media interest in Paralympic Winter Sport.
1994	Lillehammer (NOR)	Spinal injury, Amputee, Visual Impairment, Cerebral Palsy, Les Autres	31	492	Ice Sledge Hockey added as a sport.
1992	Tignes-Albertville (FRA)	Spinal injury, Amputee, Visual Impairment, Cerebral Palsy, Les Autres	24	475	Biathlon added as a discipline. Demonstration events: Alpine and Cross Country Skiing for athletes with an intellectual disability. First Games to share Olympic venues. Continued ever since.
1988	Innsbruck (AUT)	Spinal injury, Amputee, Visual Impairment, Cerebral Palsy, Les Autres	22	397	Sit-Ski events introduced in the sports of Alpine and Nordic Skiing
1984	Innsbruck (AUT)	Spinal injury, Amputee, Visual Impairment, Cerebral Palsy, Les Autres	21	457	Demonstration event at Olympics in Sarajevo: Giant Slalom.
1980	Geilo (NOR)	Spinal injury, Amputee, Visual Impairment, Les Autres,	18	350	Demonstration event: Downhill Sledge Racing
1976	Örnsköldsvik, Sweden	Spinal injury	17	250+	Demonstration event: Sledge Racing

Source: www.paralympic.org